Sign With New York Exchange. (By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK. Oct. 15.—Secretary Hester, of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, is in New York and will within a day or two sign with the officers of the New York Cotton Exchange the agreement to withhold cotton quotations from unauthorized persons.

Early in the year the New York Cotton Exchange to make new contracts will the telegraph companies by which they agreed to deliver quotations from this exchange to no person whose application had not been approved by the exchange.

The telegraph companies asked the New Orleans Exchange not to allow any quotations to be given out to unauthorized persons. The New Orleans Exchange efused to sign, the members holding that the negotiations should have come from the sister exchange. Superintendent W. V. King, of the New York Exchange, said to-night that all is harmony now, the matter having been adjusted, and an agreement between the exchanges will be signed at once.
